Part Three - Unleashing The Power Of Your Sony A6000

In this 35 minute long video Gary Fong shows you how to customize your Sony a6000 buttons and reveals his a6000 camera settings.

To download the custom button and function menu spreadsheet to guide you customizing your camera, click here.

Table Of Contents

- Mode Dial Guide
- Changing Aperture and Shutter on M Mode
- Customizing Camera Buttons
- Customizing Function Menu Settings
- What Gary Set His a6000 To
- Hot Shoe and Popup Flash
- Flash Modes
- Red Eye Reduction
- Automatic AF Focus Mode
- Wide Focus Area
- AF Illuminator
- Fast AF Drive Speed
- Normal AF Track Duration
- Exposure Compensation
- Exposure Step
- Auto ISO
- Multi Metering Mode
- Auto White Balance
- Auto Dynamic Range Optimizer
- Neutral Creative Style
- Picture Effect, Off
- Zoom and Focus Magnifier
- Long Exposure Noise Reduction
- High ISO Noise Reduction
- Lock-On Auto Focus
- Smile/Face Detection
- Soft Skin Effect
- Auto Object Framing

Related Tutorials:

- Part One - Unleashing The Power Of Your Sony A6000
  In this 33 minute long part one video, Gary walks you through the basic settings and features of the new Sony A6000 body.

- Part Two - Unleashing The Power Of Your Sony A6000
  During this 38 minute long video, part two to the unleashing the power to your Sony a6000 series, Gary finishes walking you through the new functions and features of the camera.

- Part Four - Unleashing The Power Of Your Sony A6000
  During this 35 minute video of unleasing the power of your Sony a6000 camera, Gary finishes walking you through the new functions and features of the camera.

Recent Tutorials

- Sony’s Intelligent Auto And Superior Auto Modes
  View Tutorial